OUR NEW HOME IS HERE

Are you interested in your new Council Home? Then it is imperative that you attend the council meeting this Wednesday, March 27th.

At this meeting the Columbian Club (of which we are all a part of) will present to the membership the final contractual and mortgage commitments with the low bidding general contractor and the bank.

So please attend the meeting and support your hard working brothers of the Columbian Club Planning, Finance and House Committees for their fine work in making the new home a reality.

If you were holding back on that Bond Pledge or payment, waiting to be sure that the home would be built, then this would be the opportune time for you to come forward and make the pledge and payment.
