INSURANCE NEWS

NOTHING CAN REPLACE DAD

Give your wife an income she can count on...when she can no longer count on you!

When a father dies there are three deaths: a husband, a father and an income. Of course, nothing can replace Dad -but- life insurance can replace income. If there is enough income, your family can go on living in the home you left...and mother can be there with the children.

The truly important question for Dad is, then, "Have I made sure there's enough money so that the family can go on living together?"

Our Council's Insurance Advisor can help you find the correct answer! He is Bro Gus Cawley, 231 Burroughs Terr, Union, NJ 07083-688-2285.
